

We Don't Know It All – My Engagement with a Particular Mayan Community in Guatemala

By Susan Moseley

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of the Rappahannock

July 2, 2017

In her talk, Susan shared stories from a week-long experience, highlighting her personal experiences of struggle and hope. She also offered a few theological and sociological insights gained when white, wealthy, English-speaking youth meet brown, very poor, Mam-speaking youth and build a partnership together.

Susan Moseley is the church educator for Westminster Presbyterian Church in Wilmington, DE. She received her Doctor of Educational Ministries degree (D.Ed.Min.) from Columbia Theological Seminary in 2012 and her certificate in spiritual direction from the Haden Institute in 2017. Susan is married to the Reverend Jim Moseley, Executive Presbyter for the Presbytery of New Castle.

Susan's presentation, entitled A New Mission Paradigm, is viewable on the Westminster Presbyterian Church (WPC) Blog, which is accessed by the link below:

<https://wpcguatemala.wordpress.com/2017/07/11/a-new-mission-paradigm/>